OUTREACH TRUNKS

¡Carnival!: This vibrant celebration explores carnival traditions being carried out today in eight different communities in Europe and the Americas. Crystal Production Curriculum with DVD, lesson plan, and images. No hands-on objects.

Cerámica Y Cultura: The Story of Spanish and Mexican Mayólica: Explore the rich and complex history and culture that led to one of the most enduring art forms: mayólica, tin-enameled earthenware. Kit includes Crystal Productions Curriculum with DVD video, images, lesson plan, and hands-on ceramics.

Dancing Shadow, Epic Tales: Wayang Kulit of Indonesia: Wayang Kulit are flat leather puppets, elaborately decorated and perforated, that cast intricate and dramatic shadows when used in performances. They are used to tell some of the oldest stories in the world. Learn about how the puppets are made, the role of the dhalang (puppeteer), and the gamelan orchestras. Kit includes, puppets, puppet screen, lesson plan, images, and books.

Hispanic Folk Arts and the Environment: Four separate kits include 1) Adobe 2) Foodways 3) Land, River, Resettlement 4) Weaving. Each includes Crystal Curriculum with DVD, images, lesson plan, and hands-on objects.

Masks: Cultures all over the world integrate masked processions with celebrations that mark religious occasions, seasonal changes, historical events and spontaneous revelry. Kit includes lesson plan, books, and hands-on masks.

Recycled, Re-Seen: Folk Art from the Global Scrap Heap: Interdisciplinary kit includes Crystal Productions Curriculum with DVD, lesson plan, images, magnetic board/games, and hands-on recycling objects.

Village of Painters: Narrative Scrolls from West Bengal: In-depth story of folk artists in India called patuas, who are keeping an age-old tradition alive in a rapidly changing landscape. These itinerant artists create vivid scroll painting and accompany the unrolling of their art work with singing and storytelling. Magnetic story board, scrolls, and artist tools included in kit.
