

Our in-service includes a curator-led gallery tour, interactive performance/demonstration, hands-on art activities and curricular links to the National Core Art Standards. Please note that you will be responsible for securing a substitute teacher, and the museum does not reimburse for the costs associated with your absence during in-service programs. To register for upcoming teacher in-service sessions, please complete and return this form.

Primary Contact Name:

Home or Cell Number:

E-mail:

Grade level(s):

Number of Students:

School Name:

School Address (Street, City, State,
Zip):

School Phone Number:

IN-SERVICE PROGRAM (PLEASE SELECT)

Interested in the Teacher In-Service for No Idle Hands: The Myths and Meanings of Tramp Art (Thursday, January 25, 2018)	Yes	No

Check here if you would like info on our Folk Art Outreach Trunks:

Folk Art Outreach Trunks are available for area educators to check out to use in the classroom; includes hands-on objects, lesson plans, books, and DVDs. Visit this link to learn more.

For more information, please contact:

Patricia Sigala, Educator/Community Outreach Coordinator: 505-476-1212 or patricia.sigala@state.nm.us
Museum of International Folk Art, Santa Fe, New Mexico